Charles Secoy came to the Troy School system in 1947 after receiving his Bachelor of Science Degree from Ohio Wesleyan University and his Master's Degree from Ohio State University. Since that time, he has taught us to be proud of knowledge, to thirst for learning, and to try and answer the many questions in our lives. Through his thoughtful guidance and genuine interest in the young people, he has served both the community and the students of Troy High School loyally and well. He has been both a personal friend and advisor to many of us. In the days to come, we shall miss this "old philosopher" but we shall not forget him.

To you, Mr. Secoy, this yearbook is dedicated.

"An Evening in Paris"

The annual Junior-Senior Prom was held May 20, in the high school dining room. The theme was "An Evening in Paris" (Un Soir A Paris). As the juniors and seniors entered the cafeteria, which was decorated with murals and symbols of Paris, such as the Arc de Triumphe and the Eiffel Tower, they were greeted by the sophomore servers who escorted them to their tables. During the evening everyone danced to the music of Carl Taylor's Orchestra. At intermission the students were served French pastries and enjoyed an entertaining program. The first dance after intermission was led by Jeff May and Judy Putney who were chosen king and queen of the prom. At midnight the prom ended and the couples left for various all-night activities.

HOMECOMING

HOMECOMING QUEEN BETH ANN COCHRAN

On October 3, the Senior Class met to select the Homecoming Queen and her court. Amid many smiles and tears of happiness, Beth Ann Cochran was chosen queen with Letitia Bristley, Barbara Hill, Judy Putney, Judy Woodrow, and Trudy Woodrow serving on her court. Finally the magical evening of October 14 arrived, and the Homecoming Queen and her court were escorted across the field. Queen Beth Ann was crowned and presented a bouquet of red roses by co-captain Tom Myers. After the Homecoming festivities, the girls watched the Troy Trojans score a victory over the Greenville Waves. The following evening the gala Homecoming Dance was held in the Troy High School cafeteria from 8:30 to 11:30. Highlighting the evening was the grand march led by Queen Beth and her escort.

SENIOR DINNER

The graduating class of 1961 held its Senior Dinner on May 17, in the high school dining room. Master of ceremonies for the evening was Roger McGuire. Following the prayer given by John Houck, Mr. Kazmaier presented the faculty toast. An inspiring senior toast was then given by Marge Mohler. Considerable excitement was added when the Valedictorian and Salutatorian were announced. An outstanding feature of the evening followed when Arlene Shaneyfelt dedicated the 1961 "Trojan" to Mr. Charles Secoy. During the program, Roger added humor by presenting miscellaneous awards to deserving seniors. While reading the class history, Bob Schlemmer recalled some of the highlights of the four years at Troy High School. Mr. West concluded the program with the singing of the Alma Mater.

"Pomp and Circumstance"

COMMENCEMENT

The high school days of the seniors officially came to an end on the thirty-first day of May in the year one thousand nine hundred sixty one. The traditional "Pomp and Circumstance" was played as two hundred fourteen seniors marched down the aisles of the Hobart Arena for their commencement exercises. Instead of inviting a guest speaker to give the commencement address, Jeff May, a graduating senior, was chosen to give it. The Valedictory address was given by Carolyn Kniesly and the Salutatory address by Martha Orsborn. Also included in this all-student commencement program were musical selections offered by Mary Rose Prouty, Jeri Tasker, Barbara Hill, and John Williams. The presentation of diplomas by Frank C. Montross concluded the program.

The Future Business Workers Club offers junior and senior girls a chance to further their business leadership. At the monthly meetings skits and talks are presented which give the members better knowledge of a business vocation. Besides decorating the business department bulletin board each month, they do secretarial and clerical work for the school and community. As the club's closing activity, it visited Wright Patterson Air Force Base and the National Cash Register Company to observe various types of office work. They also presented Gregg Awards to the outstanding students.

The members of the Future Homemakers of America were very active this year. Besides cupcake sales and bi-monthly meetings, they decorated a display window, served at banquets, and made Easter favors for the hospitals. They held a Mother and Daughter Banquet in February and joined with other County chapters of the F.H.A. Dance. As a final project, the club raised money for the Lebanese children.

The Future Teachers of America Club is organized to help students gain experience in teaching. To accomplish this goal, each member was assigned to a teacher in whose field he was particularly interested. Some members taught as well as prepared bulletin boards, observed classroom activities, and graded papers. In December a program was given for the benefit of both parents and students. The main feature of this program was a panel discussion on "Teaching as a Career" by four representatives from Miami University. In March several members attended the Kiwanis Future Teachers Clinic at Wittenberg University. A tea was given in the spring for the members and their sponsors.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, whose main goal is to give the students a voice in school government, is composed of one regular and one alternate member from each home room. The first of the many worthwhile activities sponsored by the Student Council was the All School Party, "Plymouth Rock." When basketball season arrived, they started a "Block 'T'" cheering section to increase school spirit among the student body. At Christmas time they bought a gift for each of the teachers. With the coming of spring, they made preparations for their second All School Party, "The Clod Hop." However, their major undertaking was the purchase of half of the off-set printer. The Student Council ended their successful year with a picnic for all of the members.

SENIOR HI-Y

Chaplain, W. Earhart; President, K. Bertholomey; Treasurer, J. Davis; Secretary, W. Hoover; Advisor, Mr. Cheney; Vice-President, T. Carey.

SOPHOMORE HI-Y

President, K. Scarff; Vice-President, M. Finnigan; Treasurer, R. Stover; Advisor, Mr. Farrell; Secretary, D. Burgner; Chaplain, R. Mueller.

KEY CLUB

Junior Representative, R. Markley; Vice-President, J. Kirkland; President, J. Roediger; Senior Representative, T. Lenear; Treasurer, R. Schlemmer; Advisor, Mr. Houk; Secretary, J. Houck.

Senior Hi-Y activities started in August when the president and vice-president attended Camp Nelson Dodd, a one week training camp for Hi-Y officers. For a fall social event the club sponsored a hayride to Taylorsville Dam. To raise money the members sold Trojan decals and sponsored a cupcake sale. This money was donated to the Rec Building Fund and "Chuck-Help-A-Family." A delegation was sent to the Northwest Ohio Hi-Y Conference in Lima. Two representatives, Ken Bertholomey and Bill Hoover, attended the Hi-Y Pre-Legislative Conference at Wilmington College and the Model Legislature in Columbus.

The Sophomore Hi-Y club was very active this year. At Christmas time they purchased and decorated the Christmas tree for the high school lobby and donated money to a needy family. In the fall the club sponsored a hayride. They concluded the year in the spring with a picnic for all the members.

In September the Key Club held an induction banquet for all the members and their families. During the year, the Key Club participated in many worthwhile activities. At Christmas time they helped a needy family through the "Chuck-Help-A-Family" drive. In order to raise money they sponsored two car-washes, a sales tax stamp drive, a paper drive, and sold programs at the basketball games. As a new project this year, the club proclaimed February 20 as Teacher Appreciation Day at Troy High School. Each teacher was given a carnation and an invitation to a tea held after school. The event proved quite successful. At the end of the year, the Key Club presented a $100 scholarship to an outstanding scholar.

Society of Seniors is a club for all senior girls. At Christmas time this club gave gifts of clothing and toys to a needy family. During the year, S.O.S. was in charge of food for the All-Club Formal and made decorations for the Senior Dinner. The monthly programs of the club usually consisted of guest speakers and panel discussions on topics of general interest. They ended the year with a picnic at the park.

Club '63 is composed of sophomore girls. This club has undertaken many worthwhile and civic projects. The first project that the club sponsored was the giving of a Christmas basket for a needy family. The girls made the decorations for the All-Club Formal and stuffed toys for the children at Stouder Memorial and Dettmer General Hospitals. A new project taken on by Club '63 was the initiation of a poetry contest. It aroused much interest and it is hoped it will be continued.

J-Teens is a club open to any junior girl. At Christmas time it gave food, clothing, a tree, and toys to a needy family. The club gave a memorial gift of books to the Troy High School Library and contributed the money for the favorite books contest. The main project of the year was the planning and giving of a breakfast for all the senior girls on the morning of Senior Chapel.

FUTURE NURSES CLUB

Vice-President, J. Meyer; President, R. Abshire; Historian, C. King; Recording Sec., B. Hoyng; Asst. Historian, D. Reed; Corresponding Sec., C. Jenkins; Treasurer, J. Woodrow; Advisor, Miss Campbell.

A new club formed this year was the Future Nurses Club. The main objective of F.N.C. is to help the girls decide whether or not nursing is the right vocation for them. The club accomplishes this by visiting various hospitals and also by trying to interest the girls in working at one of the city hospitals. The main work of the club was to comprise a directory of all the girls who have graduated in the past five years and entered nurses' training. The club corresponds with these girls and invites them to come and speak on life in nurses' training. Also the girls made house-slippers out of washclothes for the people at the County Home. At the end of the year a picnic was enjoyed by all the members.

ARTS AND CRAFTS

One of the busiest clubs at Troy High School is the Arts and Crafts. Guest speakers are invited to each monthly meeting to discuss the relationship of art in the world of today. The club helps in many community drives by providing signs and posters such as the ones for UNICEF and the Rec drive. Each year they cooperate with the Troy Chamber of Commerce in sponsoring a down-town art exhibit. In addition, their work includes decorations for the athletic assemblies, and banquets, scenery for the plays and musical productions, and signs used to promote school spirit. Every two years the club visits the national museum in either Cincinnati or Columbus to study varied forms of art and culture.

DRAMATICS CLUBS

Some two hundred Troy High School students participate in the activities of the Senior and Sophomore Dramatic Clubs. At the monthly meetings all members have an opportunity to participate in extemporaneous and rehearsed skits. The Senior Dramatic Club sponsored the play, "The Thread That Runs So True," and helped the speech class in the production of "A Night of Fun." For the first time, the Dramatic Clubs, under the supervision of the Thespians, sponsored noon hour skits. Finishing the year, the Senior Dramatic Club sponsored the Senior Class Play, "My Little Margie."

"The Thread That Runs So True"

This is a true story about Jesse Stuart, who is suddenly made teacher of the Lonesome Valley School in Kentucky. When Stuart is put in charge, he feels quite lonesome because many of his students, such as Guy Hawkins, are bigger and tougher than he, and none of them can see much sense in studying. With patience, with humor, and often with flashes of intelligence, Jesse begins to excite his students about their work. His task is made difficult because Guy Hawkins is a constant threat and finally because he falls in love with Naomi, a girl in his class. However, when Jesse's students win the local scholastic contest, he finds that he has earned the respect and support of the whole valley.

Disgraceful! Courtin'———and now fightin'!

Kolter's Jewelry Store

"Down In The Valley" is a simple tale of Brack Weaver and his sweetheart, Jennie Parsons. Told in a series of flashbacks, it begins with Brack in prison awaiting the gallows. Unable to face his death without knowing that Jennie loves him, he escapes to meet her; and, in a series of reminiscences, they tell how they met and fell in love, how Thomas Bouche', the villain, forced his attentions on Jennie, and how at the weekly square dance, Brack killed Bouche' in a brawl After reliving the fateful events that led him to prison, Brack gives himself up to the posse, but carries with him the knowledge that Jennie still loves him.

"MY LITTLE MARGIE"

The play "My Little Margie" tells of Vern Albright, who tries to keep his daughter from losing the wealthy client Sir Saiyid Nasif. Because her father won't permit her to marry Freddie, a nice but impractical young man, Margie decides to use reverse psychology. She becomes involved with Sir Saiyid and completely ignores Freddie. Vern has other ideas though. To show Margie how brave Freddie is and to make her forget Sir Saiyid, Vern plans an assassination with Freddie as the hero. Things become involved though, when a real Whadi tribesman appears. Many problems arise but in the end Freddie proves his bravery, and Sir Saiyid returns to Berabia.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

The Sophomore and A Cappella choirs have provided excellent entertainment in their various concerts. During the Christmas season the choirs gave their traditional concerts at the Troy Bank and the Altrurian Club. Both choirs participated in "A Night of Music," a production sponsored by the Music Department. Included in the "Night of Music" were individual acts, ensembles, and an operetta entitled "Down in the Valley." In May the a cappella choir traveled to Versailles for a concert. At the end of the year, the choirs participated in the May Spring Festival. Both choirs have given individual concerts for the students of Troy High School.

FOOTBALL

In 1961 the Trojans again captured the M.V.L. title. After losing the preview game to Lima, the team came back to win all of their remaining games. The highlight of the season was the clash between Troy and Fairmont. In this very exciting game the Trojans downed the Fairmont Dragons 18-9. To celebrate the winning of the M.V.L. title, the entire student body gathered in the auditorium for a pep assembly which was followed by a snake dance through town. This gave a wonderful end to a great season of football.

After winning their first game, the 1960-61 basketball team met some tough opposition and ended the season with a record of seven wins and twelve losses. However, the inexperienced Trojans improved with each game and at tournament time proved their skill by reaching the semi-finals in the district. In this thrilling game the Trojans were defeated by a hot Northmont team. Throughout the season, the Block "T" cheering section attended each home game and supported the team.
